COMMUNITY WATCH

Speakers on Education, Family & Societal Issues
Welcome to CommunityWatch

CommunityWatch showcases speakers for K-12 educators and school-based audiences, including educational organizations and parent and community groups.

Drawing from our extensive roster of renowned education thought leaders, best-selling authors, crowd-drawing celebrities and more, our experienced agents (who are also former educators) will match you with the perfect speaker for your goals and audience.

Concerned about going virtual? In the age of COVID-19, you can also trust us to help you create an outstanding virtual event. And, as conditions open up, we will work with you on in-person or hybrid programs.

Here's to making your event unforgettable!

We look forward to working with you!
Diane Ravitch
Former Assistant Secretary of Education
The nation’s leading champion for public education with more than 36 million blog hits, historian of education Ravitch writes on the danger of privatizing public schools.

Geoffrey Canada
Founder of the Harlem Children’s Zone
Child and community advocate Canada speaks passionately about addressing the needs of at-risk children, families, and communities and eliminating education inequities.

Colin Seale
Critical Thinking Evangelist & Founder/CEO of thinkLaw
A challenging upbringing in Brooklyn, NY gave birth to Seale’s passion for educational equity after he was tracked early into gifted programs and afforded opportunities his neighborhood peers were not.

Michael Sorrell
Transformative College President & Higher Ed Innovator
Ranked by Fortune as one of the world’s greatest leaders, Sorrell’s “urban work college model” transformed a struggling Paul Quinn College into one of the most innovative colleges in the U.S.

Christopher Emdin
Professor of Science, Columbia U
Celebrating the magic of teaching, urban education reform expert reminds us that students enter the classroom from different walks of life—and shares creative ways to engage all youth.

Michael Fullan
Innovator & Leader in Teacher Education
The former Dean of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto, Fullan is an expert on education reform. He advises lawmakers with the moral goal of universal education.
John B. King
President Obama’s Secretary of Education
An inspiring leader whose life was transformed by the power of education, King has witnessed teaching and learning at all levels. He offers a big picture look at education and opportunity.

Yong Zhao
Globalization & Education Expert
Exploring education in our global age, Zhao focuses on integrating best practices from Eastern and Western education systems and encourages us to think of students as entrepreneurs.

John Medina
Author, Brain Rules
A developmental molecular biologist, Medina turns brain research and how the brain interprets information into captivating talks and effective education strategies for children and teens.

Talithia Williams
STEAM Education Advocate
A professor, mathematician and statistician with a TED talk viewed almost 2 million times, Williams reveals the role of data in our everyday lives and inspires kids to embrace STEAM.

Salome Thomas-EL
Inspirational Principal
“Every child needs someone to be crazy about them.” These are the words of Thomas-EL, nationally recognized educator. They shape his lifelong commitment to answering the question, “How do we ensure that every child achieves their greatest potential?”

Michael Hynes
Superintendent & K-12 Thought Leader
Emphasizing the importance of play and recess in schools and yoga and mindfulness in the classroom, Hynes champions taking a holistic approach to educating children around the world.
Justin Shaifer
LinkedIn Top Voice In Technology, Science Show Host & STEAM Educator
A rising star in education and advocacy, Shaifer is a popular and inspiring science communicator creating breakthrough programs to engage underserved youth in STEAM.

Jeff Duncan-Andrade
Co-Founder of the Teaching Excellence Network
A veteran classroom teacher in East Oakland, CA, Duncan-Andrade and his pedagogy have been widely studied and acclaimed for producing uncommon levels of social and academic success.

Alberto M. Carvalho
Superintendent of Miami-Dade County Schools
An expert on education transformation, Carvalho is credited with successfully turning his district around and elevating it to one of the nation’s highest-performing urban school systems.

Erin Gruwell
Teacher, Catalyst & Author
Freedom Writers author Gruwell teaches educators how to incorporate the lessons she gleaned in her classroom, using journals and the power of storytelling to enhance learning.

Donna Porter & DJ Batiste
Inspirational Teacher-Student Duo
From gang member to head of the class, the course of DJ Batiste’s life was literally changed by award-winning educator Porter. They share tips and tools for reaching all students.

William Deresiewicz
Professor & Award-Winning Essayist
Deresiewicz shares groundbreaking insights into the power of a liberal arts education and the role that schools play in shaping our future.
Joel Westheimer
Education Columnist for CBC Radio, Author & Research Chair
Westheimer researches the role of schools in democratic societies, and studies global school reform, the standards and accountability onslaught, and the politics of education and education research.

Johnnetta Cole
President Emerita of Spelman & Bennett Colleges
Drawing from her experiences as an educator and humanitarian, Cole lends a unique perspective on critical issues such as race, gender and other forms of inequality.

Jawanza Kunjufu
Author & Urban School District Consultant
Kunjufu offers a compelling examination of the many unique academic challenges that face black males. His work has been featured in Ebony and Essence, and is used in online courses nationwide.

Dr. Rich Milner
Professor of Education in the Department of Teaching and Learning, Vanderbilt University
Centering equity and diversity, Dr. Milner examines how the ways in which teachers talk, particularly about race, influences student learning, identity, and more.

Dr. Ron Whitaker
Freedom Fighter, Critical Scholar & Equity Strategist
Known as an Equity and Anti-Racist Freedom Fighter, Dr. Whitaker is Director of the Center for Urban Education, Equity, and Improvement at Cabrini University. He focuses on the psychology of race and racism, issues related to diversity, equity, inclusion (DEI), and more.

Ruby Payne
Founder, aha! Process
Internationally known for her book and workshop, A Framework for Understanding Poverty, Payne helps students and adults of all economic backgrounds achieve success.
Rosalind Wiseman
Teacher, Author & Youth Culture Expert
A pioneer in understanding today’s youth, Wiseman fosters civil dialogue and inspires communities and schools to build strength, courage, purpose and cultures of dignity.

Eric Liu
CEO, Citizen University & Civic Evangelist
One of the most sought-after speakers on citizen power, civic health, the future of democracy and American identity, Liu celebrates shared values and challenges us to live up to them.

Jessica Lahey
Educator & Author
Lahey inspires with her rallying cry to allow children to experience failure as an integral part of developing resiliency. She shares strategies to reframe setbacks as steps toward success.

Jeffrey Selingo
Higher Education Thought Leader
Best-selling author and Washington Post columnist Selingo shares insights into getting the most out of your education experience to be better prepared for the jobs of tomorrow.

Devorah Heitner
Founder, Raising Digital Natives
Heitner teaches schools how to cultivate a culture of responsible digital citizenship and gives parents invaluable advice on helping their kids thrive in a complex digital world.

Robert Jackson
Teacher, Education Consultant & Author
“No More Excuses” teaching approach has turned low performing students into successful professionals.
Nicole Thompson
Educator, Author & Humanitarian
Committed to Serving Urban Youth
The creator of Reverse the Adverse, a trauma-informed care training for educators, Thompson helps raise awareness of the impact that adverse childhood experiences have on urban students.

Kate Gerson
Public Intellectual & Best-Selling Author
A powerful advocate for equity in American schools, Gerson is known for her ability to translate data into comprehensible truths, as she presents a model for the kind of granular, detailed thinking needed for instructional change.

Michele Borba
Teacher & Educational Psychologist
Citing research that today’s selfie-obsessed teens are 40% less empathetic, Borba presents a new framework for activating empathy for success in school and life.

Scott Poland
Expert on School Crisis, Suicide & Bullying
An internationally recognized pioneer in school suicide prevention, Poland helps schools develop and implement effective assessment and intervention strategies.

Michael A. Davis
NYT Best-Selling Author, Producer & Educator
In Davis’ acclaimed book Street Gang (and documentary of the same name), he offers a compelling look into the history of Sesame Street and what it took to bring the iconic characters and show to life.

Kevin Powell
Writer, Activist & President of BK Nation
Raised by a single mother in horrific poverty, Powell went on to become the author of over a dozen books and one of the most celebrated political, cultural, and literary voices in America today.
Maureen Healy
Educator & Best-Selling Author
A leader in her field, Healy draws from her extensive teaching and counseling background to give adults the ideas they need to nurture positive emotional health and resilience in today's children.

Malcolm Mitchell
Former NFL Player & Children’s Book Author
A former wide receiver for the New England Patriots and active community volunteer, Mitchell is known for visiting elementary schools to read to students and talk about literacy.

Katie Hurley
Psychotherapist & Parenting Expert
The Founder of “Girls Can!” empowerment groups, Hurley explores everything from relational aggression and cyberbullying to how students can tap into empathy to affect meaningful change.

Dr. Nii Addy
Neuroscientist, Mental Health Advocate, Yale Professor & Podcast Host, Addy Hour
Dr. Addy’s familiarity with effective psychological interventions and his perspective as a black scientist in the midst of ongoing racial injustice makes him a sought after speaker on topics such as neuroscience, mental health, faith, and diversity, equity and inclusion.

Peggy Orenstein
NYT Best-Selling Author
Orenstein is an internationally-acclaimed expert on the challenges facing teens, college students—and their parents—as they come of age in today’s culture.

Mike Veny
Mental Health & Wellness Facilitator
Veny shares his story about living with mental health problems while offering tips and tools on how to transform the stigma in our schools and communities. He is known for his impactful drumming workshops.
David Epstein
#1 NYT Best-Selling Author
Epstein shares how learners and educators can thrive in an increasingly complex world—not by picking a single specialty and mastering it—but by sampling many areas to develop range.

Dr. Eddie Glaude, Jr.
New York Times Best-Selling Author & Chair of African American Studies, Princeton
A prominent scholar, political commentator, public intellectual and passionate educator, Dr. Glaude examines the complex dynamics of the American experience.

Dan Rather
Legendary Broadcaster
Bringing six decades of chronicling our world, Rather is more relevant than ever as a best-selling author, active voice on social media and patriotic advocate for uniting in divisive times.

John Quiñones
Host, What Would You Do?
An Emmy winner and ABC's first Latino anchor, Quiñones grew up as the child of migrant farm workers. His inspiring story is the embodiment of the transformative power of education.

Maria Hinojosa
Emmy-Winning Journalist
Anchor and executive producer of NPR's “Latino USA,” and a panelist on Meet the Press, Hinojosa examines the critical issues that are changing our cultural and political landscape.

Nick Kristof
Pulitzer Prize-Winning NYT Columnist
Advocating for human rights and giving a voice to the voiceless, Kristof shares compelling stories from close to home and around the world to illuminate the most critical issues of our time.
Wil Haygood
Acclaimed Biographer, Author of The Butler
Best-selling author and cultural historian Haygood tells the story of America through the lens of history, politics, sports, race, and the lives of change-making African-Americans.

David Hogg
Co-Founder, March For Our Lives
Thrust into the world of activism by the largest school shooting in American history, Parkland survivor Hogg has become one of the most compelling voices of his generation.

Catherine Rampell
Washington Post Columnist
One of the youngest nationally syndicated columnists, Rampell takes a straight-on, data-driven approach to the most intriguing areas of economics, public policy, politics, and culture.

James McBride
NYT Best-Selling Author & Musician
McBride uses music and writing to share powerful stories such as his landmark memoir The Color of Water, The Good Lord Bird and his latest best-seller, Deacon King Kong.

Michael Eric Dyson
Public Intellectual & Best-Selling Author
Featured on NPR and MSNBC, two-time NAACP Image Award winner Dyson melds scholarly insight with contemporary culture as he examines the critical issues of the day.

Richard Buery
CEO of Robin Hood & Former CEO of Achievement First
Buery is the CEO of Robin Hood, one of the largest anti-poverty forces in the nation. Also the former CEO of Achievement First, a network of public charter schools, he helped provide an excellent education to 15,000 students across New York, Connecticut and Rhode Island.
Wes Moore

NYT Best-Selling Author & CEO, The Robin Hood Foundation

Moore energizes audiences with his remarkable personal story of overcoming adversity through education, embracing personal responsibility and emerging as an inspirational leader.

Temple Grandin

Autism Advocate

The world’s most accomplished adult with autism, Grandin was portrayed by Claire Danes in the film, Temple Grandin. She reminds us that all children can be taught to achieve their potential.

Steve Pemberton

Inspirational Child Advocate & Best-Selling Author

Pemberton’s triumphant life story is about defying insurmountable beginnings through the power of education—going from an orphan in foster care to college and the C-suite.

Grace Byers

Author & Actress on Hit TV Show, Empire

Raised by two deaf parents, Byers lends insights into challenging social and cultural experiences, encouraging all of us to have compassion and grace for each other.

Christopher Gray

Founder & Chief Executive Officer of Scholly

Raised in poverty and determined to help others go to college, Gray sparked the biggest fight in Shark Tank history with Scholly, his breakthrough app that helps students find scholarships.

Sonia Manzano

“Maria” on Sesame Street

A first-generation American of Latin descent, Manzano’s tale is one of perseverance and courage as she overcame obstacles to become one of the most influential Latinas in television.
Freeman Hrabowski
President of The University Of Maryland, Baltimore
An award-winning educator whose passion has transformed his campus, Hrabowski partners with businesses and the community to foster skills and ensure that graduates are employable.

Stacey Bess
Inspirational Educator & Author
Subject of the movie Beyond the Blackboard, Bess shares heartfelt stories about her years teaching children in a homeless shelter, and offers powerful insights and tools for youth educators and advocates.

Ernie Hudson
Actor & Activist
Rising out of poverty to appear in Ghostbusters, Oz and Law and Order, Hudson shares a moving life story filled with lessons on fatherhood, overcoming adversity, and following dreams.

Cheryl Brown-Henderson
Educator & Civil Rights Activist
The “Brown” in the landmark Brown vs. The Board of Education case, she has devoted her inspiring life to ensuring that a child’s educational future isn’t predetermined by their zip code.

Dr. Sampson Davis
Physician & Inspirational Leader
Growing up surrounded by crime, drugs and poverty, Davis embraced the power of education to emerge as a successful doctor. His empowering story challenges us to be the best we can be.

Kristen Geez
Youth Practitioner & Gen Z Expert
Dedicated to building confidence and setting high standards for young people and the adults that work with them, Geez has inspired thousands to pursue their personal and professional goals.
Ron Suskind
Pulitzer Prize Winner & Education Advocate
As told in the Oscar-nominated film, Life Animated, Suskind shares his son’s moving journey with autism and how he emerged from the silence of the spectrum to become a thriving young adult.

Heather Abbott
Boston Marathon Bombing Survivor
Abbott’s life changed forever when she was struck by bomb shrapnel and lost her left leg. She captivates audiences with her compelling story of optimism, resilience and helping others.

Damon West
Addiction, Recovery & Behavioral Health Advocate
A former NCAA quarterback sentenced to life in prison, West shares his story of abuse, addiction and recovery. His “coffee bean” analogy inspires us all that we can reach full potential by adjusting perspective.

Richard White
Inspirational Leader, Professor & Principal Tubist
White overcame a challenging childhood marked by intermittent homelessness to become a tubist performing on the world stages. He shares an incredible story of resilience and determination.

Mickey Rowe
Founder & Artistic Director of National Disability Theatre
Lauded for his roles in Tony Award-winning plays, Rowe is the first actor with autism to play an autistic character in a professional performance. He celebrates differences as strengths.

Caylin Moore
Author, Rhodes Scholar & Aspiring Professor
Moore’s against-all-odds journey from the cruel poverty of gang-ridden Los Angeles to becoming a Rhodes Scholar celebrates the pursuit of dreams and the transformative power of education.